It is requested that all applicants attend an upcoming meeting to introduce yourself and allow the membership to vote on your membership application. Membership applications that have not been voted on in 6 months will be withdrawn and the applicant will need to reapply. Applicants that are unable to attend an upcoming meeting, please include a short bio introducing yourself and a brief outline of your Amateur Radio experience and your primary interests so that we can introduce you to the club and vote on your membership.

Bylaw 2) Membership – Membership is open to licensed amateurs and those with an active interest in Amateur Radio. Members have all Association privileges including the right to hold office and vote for Association Officers. Voting on applications shall be in the absence of the applicant, at a regular meeting and shall require a simple majority. Membership renewal is at the discretion of the Executive Committee.
