Old Business:

Don (KMOR) reported that there was no Tech Committee news..

Joe (KCOWGB) reported on the net. In August we had a total of 4 sessions with 49 QNI and 5 QTC.

Brian ((KCOMGG) and Pam (KDOGRQ) gave an MS 150 Bike Ride report.

Loretta Schouter (Guest) reported on the Rock Bridge Elementary School project. It is to begin at 3:30 PM 19 Sep at Rock Bridge Elementary. Don (KMOR) was selected to speak for CMRA. Loretta requested that as many club members as possible come. The students and teachers are very enthusiastic about the project. Dave (KDOEAG) volunteered to get club information to Loretta for distribution at the announcement party. She requested a deadline of Monday for the materials to be sent to her.

Daniel (KCOUTW) reported that the Nat'l Convention will be held in Lebanon, MO and that Steve Nagel will be one of the speakers.

Corey (KCOYNS) requested he be allowed to purchase two dozen JOTA patches for JOTA at $4.00 each. His request was approved.

New Business:

The club voted to accept Jeremy Deiner's (KOLAD) and Christopher Cameren's (KDOWBV) applications for membership.

Corey (KCOYNS) mentioned that the ARRL SET will be held in early October and asked if any one objected to being sent SET messages. No objections.

There will be a Hamfest in Gardner, KS, 14 Sep.

Dave (KDOEAG) agreed to serve out the term of Mike (ACOG) who resigned as Vice President.

The meeting adjourned at 8:00 PM.

Respectfully Submitted,
